A composite image showing a woman with long blonde hair smiling, framed in a white circular inset. This inset is placed over a photograph of a bus driver's perspective from inside the cockpit. The driver is wearing a grey jacket and is seated in a black ergonomic chair. The dashboard features a digital display showing a map. Through the windshield, a blue bus and a red car are visible on a city street.

System, not silos

An aerial photograph of a busy city street. A red double-decker bus is stopped at a bus stop, with many people waiting. A blue tram is also stopped at a tram stop, with people boarding and alighting. The street is paved with light-colored tiles, and there are many pedestrians walking around. In the background, there is a large building with a blue tarp covering a section of its roof. The text "Benefits or profits?" is overlaid in the center of the image.

Benefits or profits?
